

Non-Disclosure Agreement

Between CardLinPro LLC, hereinafter referred to as the “Disclosing Party,” and the merchant, hereinafter referred to as the “Receiving Party,” collectively referred to as the “Parties,” this Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) is made in connection with the onboarding of merchants to the cryptocurrency payment system.

1. Definitions

- a) “Confidential Information” — any information provided by one Party (the Disclosing Party) to the other Party (the Receiving Party) in connection with the onboarding of merchants to the cryptocurrency payment system. Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to, technical specifications, development plans, financial data, customer information, and any other information that is a trade secret or considered confidential by either Party.
- b) “Merchant” — a natural or legal person wishing to connect to the cryptocurrency payment system of the Disclosing Party.

2. Obligations of the Parties

- a) The Receiving Party agrees to:
- Not disclose Confidential Information to third parties without prior written consent from the Disclosing Party, except where disclosure is required by law or court order.
 - Use Confidential Information solely for the purpose of onboarding merchants to the cryptocurrency payment system and not for commercial or competitive purposes.
 - Take all necessary measures to ensure the security and confidentiality of the Confidential Information provided by the Disclosing Party.
- b) The Disclosing Party agrees to:
- Provide Confidential Information to the Receiving Party solely for the purpose of onboarding merchants to the cryptocurrency payment system.
 - Notify the Receiving Party of the confidentiality of such information and the requirements for compliance with this agreement.
 - Take all reasonable measures to protect the Confidential Information from unauthorized access or disclosure to third parties.

3. Term

This Non-Disclosure Agreement shall come into effect upon signing by both Parties and shall remain in force throughout the duration of the collaboration or until written notice is received from either Party regarding the termination of this agreement.

4. Dispute Resolution

All disputes or disagreements arising in connection with this Non-Disclosure Agreement shall be resolved through negotiations between the Parties. If disputes cannot be resolved through negotiations, they shall be subject to resolution in accordance with applicable law.
